

CHRISTMAS AT RAYLEIGH BAPTIST CHURCH

Questions for Life Group

Our theme for our Christmas messages at our various Gatherings this year is Expectant Hope. What comes to mind when you think on this theme?

How would you share your Hope and Expectation with your friends, family or neighbours?

Thinking about the creation account in Genesis 1, what stands out for you? Why?
[some things to listen out for could include: God existed before creation / God created the heavens and the earth / God created mankind, male and female in His image / We were created for relationship - with God and each other / creation was very good / God has given mankind responsibility to look after creation]

John 1 v 1 to 5 & 14 - God has demonstrated that the universe is worth saving. What might you change knowing how important creation is to God?

Paul said on Sunday that the church is the one place we should be able to know that we belong. Do you agree or disagree with his statement? Why?

How can we be more intentional in sharing God's Hope this Christmas?
