

Questions for Life Groups

Genesis 17 v 1-8, 15-22 and Genesis 21 v 1-5

1. Why do you think God revealed his name when speaking of the covenant he made with Abram and his descendants?
2. v 1 God's revelation and v 3 Abram's response. What does it teach us about who God is, who we are and how we should respond to him?
3. What does God's covenant name El Shaddai, mean for your life? How have you experienced God's almighty power working on your behalf?
4. Are you really trusting God that he is able to do all that he has promised you?
5. How does this passage inspire you in your personal walk with God?
6. Sometimes like Abram we can go for 13 years (or a long time) without a major experience or revelation from God. In those seasons, what has happened to your faith and your walk with God?
