

Sunday 28th September

Read - 1 Kings 16 v 30,

1 Kings 17 v 1-5, & James 5 v 17

1. How does Elijah's prophecy to Ahab reflect the consequences of ungodly leadership?
2. Why was Elijah's declaration to Ahab significant?
3. What does this account teach us about God's power over nature and the spiritual world?
4. How might you respond to a command from God that seems illogical or risky?
5. How did Elijah's actions at the brook demonstrate his faith and trust in God's word?
6. How can you echo Elijah's courageous faith in God's promises in your personal circumstances, especially during challenging times?
7. How is your faith in God? Do you struggle to trust God with the things he tells you to do or say?
8. When was the last time you spoke or acted boldly in complete faith after hearing God's words?
9. Can you share examples of when God provided for you supernaturally?
10. Can you share how God met with you during a difficult period and in doing so prepared you for some future event.
