

Life Group questions from Sunday 12th July

We are all flawed – often not making the right decisions or going the right way. We are like Jonah, maybe not to the same degree, but we have a tendency not to listen too closely for God's voice or even choose not to hear it at all. BUT God chooses to use us if we let Him and gives us second chances.

If we actively 'lean into' God, He will speak, guide & prompt us – are we willing to 'lean in'?

1. God calls again

- Have you experienced a second (or third or fourth) call from God about the same thing?
- What stopped you responding initially?
- Have you responded yet?
- Do you need anything/anyone to help you?

2. Jonah obeys

- When have you said "Yes" to God? (keep in mind that a "Yes" could be big or small)
- What did that look like?
- What made you say "Yes"?

3. Ninevah responds

- What was the outcome of your obedience:- for you/for someone else/for a situation?

4. God relents

- Grace – how do you see this evidenced in your life?

If you want to discuss/consider the 3 additional challenges I mentioned they are:-

1. If you've been holding back from God – would you turn toward Him now?
2. If you've written someone off – would you start praying for them again?
3. If you've been stuck thinking you're not good enough yet or you're too bad, you're too old or too young – would you receive the grace that is available to you through a relationship with Jesus – it's open to everyone?
